DETENTION ORDER

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

- (1) There is probable cause to believe the defendant committed the conspiracy drug offense. The maximum penalty is in excess of ten years. There is therefore a rebuttable presumption against the defendant's release based upon both dangerousness and flight risk under Title 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e).
- (2) Nothing in this record satisfactorily rebuts the presumption against release for several reasons:
  - (a) The defendant presents a risk of nonappearance due to the following: He is a citizen and national of Mexico who has been previously deported; his background and his ties to the Western District of Washington are unknown/unverified; there are at least three extractable warrants pending against defendant.
  - (b) The Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement has filed a detainer against defendant.
  - (c) Defendant does not contest to detention at this time, reserving the right to address detention in the future.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- (1) The defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (2) The defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which

1 the defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States
2 Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court
3 proceeding; and

- 4 (4) The clerk shall direct copies of this order to counsel for the United 5 States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to 6 the United States Pretrial Services Officer.

7 DATED this 30th day of July, 2007.
